

U.S. Department of the Interior
Bureau of Land Management

Keysville Special Recreation Management Area

Photo by Amy Girado/BLM

Walker Cabin Family Day!

History will come alive when you join the BLM Bakersfield Field Office for a free, family friendly, educational event at the Walker Cabin in the Keysville Special Recreation Management Area. Kids and adults alike can listen to an interpretative ranger talk, experience gold panning first-hand and learn about the Tübatulabal Native American culture by hearing their language and seeing beading, native plants and basketry.

WHEN: Saturday, Aug. 11, from 9 a.m. until noon.

WHERE: Walker Cabin in the Keysville Special Recreation Management Area, on state Route 155 near Lake Isabella, California.

WEAR: Dress for hot temperatures and bring plenty of water.

CONTACT: Bakersfield Field Office at 661-391-6000 for information or for reasonable accommodations to participate.